

Which dance is your romance?

Put your Valentine to the test with Marianka Swain's sizzling quiz

1. Your Valentine has planned a special date at:

- A Nowhere. Planning isn't their style.
- B Your favourite restaurant – dining at the chef's table, naturally.
- C A friend's ironic costume party. You know, you might run into them there.
- D They've booked one place. You've booked another. Let battle commence.

2. Your Valentine would love to see you wearing:

- A Nothing at all.
- B An elegant ensemble and the watch they gave you on your anniversary.
- C A corresponding costume to theirs. Just for fun.
- D Black. Always.

3. The gift you're expecting from your Valentine is:

- A Who knows? It'll be a complete surprise. And possibly skirting the border of "strictly legal".
- B An engraved trinket box, from the antique shop you mentioned liking six months ago.
- C Suggestive. Not to be opened in front of your parents...
- D An expensive scarf you know will look great, but also reminds you of that argument about a certain "someone" from work.

4. You surprise your Valentine by serenading them with their favourite song. Their response is:

- A Confused. Did you lose a bet?
- B Charmed, if slightly put out that you beat them to it.
- C Pleased. Now they can go ahead with their flashmob plans.
- D Suspicious. Are you trying to distract from a recent crime?

5. At the end of the night, your Valentine:

- A Keeps the party going, in another time zone.
- B Takes you home in a horse-drawn carriage.
- C Changes their Facebook status to "It's complicated".
- D Initiates a screaming match. One you're determined to win, one way or another...

Results

Mostly As: Samba
Just like the raunchy carnival dance, it's a fast-moving, red-hot fling that constantly keeps you guessing. It might not last long, but while it does, it'll be fun, exciting and enviably steamy.

Mostly Bs: Waltz
Your relationship is as sweet and elegant as the classic ballroom dance, with just a touch of old-fashioned courtship. Prepare for a romantic Valentine's and the promise of a happy ever after.

Mostly Cs: Cha cha cha
You're in the most enjoyable part of any romance: flirtation, as embodied by the cheekiest Latin dance. It's all about the playful texts, coded expressions and perhaps taking it a step further on February 14.

Mostly Ds: Tango
Like the passionate, aggressive Argentine dance, your relationship is a constant battle for domination, switching from smouldering desire to fiery rage in a second. Your Valentine's may be love/hate, but it certainly won't be boring.
